PHILIP-EYE

St. Philip Day School

Many people joined the conversation about the St. Philip Day School this past Sunday with John Wurster, Keatan King, and Omar Rouchon. The school is a mission initiative on our campus benefitting families lacking access to quality early childhood education. Everyone learned about this new chapter in St. Philip's service to our community.

The documents linked below were shared for the discussion Sunday: introductory information in an FAQ format, a flow chart indicating the many steps needed to open the school by next June, and a floorplan showing the modifications being made to the first floor of the education building. A link to the recording is also available. If you wish to have a copy of the documents printed and mailed to you, please contact Lorrie Castle at 713-622-4807.

OPERATION IMPACT delivers hurricane kits to hundreds of homebound Houstonians—On June 1 and June 8, Julie MacLemore Wells and Sid Wells and Angelina Fonseca-Grewal joined hundreds of Houstonians who picked up medium sized boxes of hurricane kits filled with canned food and dry non-perishable food. Sid and Julie delivered meal to eighteen people, and Angelina delivered to 5 people across Houston and Galveston counties to deliver the boxes to home bound citizens. Meals on Wheels for Greater Houston believes in preparation for Hurricane Season. To prepare our seniors and not require Interfaith Ministries staff or volunteers to be on the roadways when conditions are not safe, we deliver these hurricane meal boxes each year. Meals on Wheels for Greater Houston was able to deliver hurricane meal boxes on Saturday, June 1st to over 800 Meals on Wheels seniors in Houston. With 5 meals per box, that totals over 4,000 emergency meals now in the hands of our older, homebound neighbors. Our seniors need our help all year round - not only during Hurricane Season. The need for Meals on Wheels is greater than ever, at a time when donations are down. Please consider making a summer donation to Meals on Wheels or Animeals on Wheels at <https://www.imggh.org/donate/meals/>

ugee Day dinner hosted by Plant It Forward's new CEO Nirjhor Rahman. Over 75 guests from the restaurant industry, faith groups and supporters of urban farming gathered to listen to the farmers' stories of arriving to America and starting their own business farming. A three-course menu was served by Craft Pita head chef and the head chef of Jun Evelyn Garcia. The chefs used in-season vegetables and herbs grown by the Plant it Forward farmers. Later this fall, volunteers will be needed to help the farmers at the Community Work Days. Thank you to St. Philip for your support through the Mission grants that fund farming education and initiatives for these refugee owned businesses around Houston.

LIBERTY HIGH SCHOOL students graduate, prepared for college with help from St. Philip members—

On Tuesday, June 4, Angelina Fonseca-Grewal dropped off all the school supplies the St. Philip congregation donated to the graduating seniors as well as 14 shoe boxes filled with travel size toiletries, notepads, pens, and hygiene products the students are also in need of. Thank you to the St. Philip congregation for donating college supplies to the graduating high school students. Thank you for your offerings during the month of May that totaled $2,296 to support the senior activities. Students taking summer school will also be graduating later this summer. CLOTHING FOR OUR BROTHERS AND SISTERS EXPERIENCING HOMELESSNESS—

Lord of the Streets (LOTS) is an Episcopal Church in Midtown Houston, and whose primary congregation is people who are experiencing homelessness. You can help serve their congregation by bringing clothes and shoes to 3401 Fannin St., 77004, during the week (Mon-Fri, 8:00-Noon); clothes are distributed on Wednesdays and Thursdays. They have an immediate need for men's shoes. Contact Thania Hernandez (info@lotshouston.org) for more information. lotshouston.org.
