Introit

O, Holy Spirit, Lord of Grace

Christopher Tye
(1505-before 1573)

O Holy Spirit, Lord of grace, Eternal source of love, Inflame, we pray, our inmost hearts with fire from heav'n above.
As thou dost join with holiest bonds, the Father and the Son,
So fill us all with mutual love and knit our hearts in one.

- Charles Coffin (1676-1749)

✠ Opening Sentences

✠ Hymn 35 \(see page 11\)

Praise Ye the Lord, the Almighty

LOBE DEN HERREN

✦ Prayer of Confession

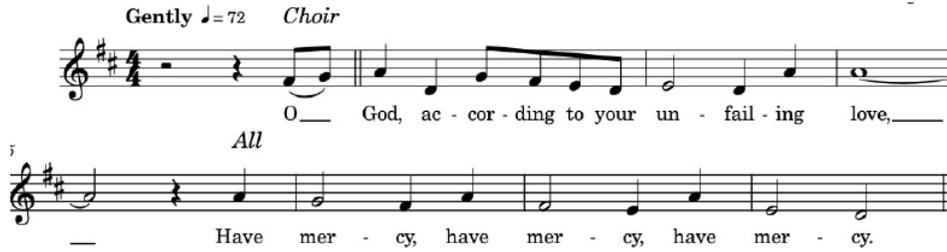

Gracious God,
 you are more ready to forgive
 than we are to admit our wrongdoing.
 Help us to see where we have fallen short,
 where we have missed the mark,
 and where we have failed to follow your law of love.
 As we acknowledge our sinfulness,
 let us also seek more intently your tender mercy.
 Cleanse our hearts, refresh our spirits, and renew our faith,
 so that we may follow more nearly in the way of Jesus.

Anthem*Hark! I Hear the Harps Eternalarr. Craig Carnahan*

1. Hark, I hear the harps eternal ringing on the farther shore,
As I near those swollen waters with their deep and solemn roar.
2. And my soul, though stained with sorrow, fading as the light of day,
Passes swiftly o'er those waters to the city far away.
3. Souls have crossed before me, saintly, to that land of perfect rest;
And I hear them singing faintly in the mansions of the blest.

Refrain:

Alleluia, praise the Lamb!
Alleluia, glory to the great I AM!

✦ Affirmation of Faithfrom A Brief Statement of Faith*

We trust in Jesus Christ, fully human, fully God.
Jesus proclaimed the reign of God:
preaching good news to the poor
and release to the captives, teaching by word and deed
and blessing the children, healing the sick
and binding up the brokenhearted,
eating with outcasts,
forgiving sinners,
and calling all to repent and believe the gospel.
Unjustly condemned for blasphemy and sedition,
Jesus was crucified,
suffering the depths of human pain
and giving his life for the sins of the world.
God raised this Jesus from the dead,
vindicating his sinless life,
breaking the power of sin and evil,
delivering us from death to life eternal. Amen.

Prayers of the People

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
 hallowed be Thy name.
 Thy Kingdom come,
 Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
 Give us this day our daily bread,
 and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
 And lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil;
 for Thine is the Kingdom,
 and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Offertory

Will there really be a "Morning"?
Will there really be a "Morning"?
Is there such a thing as "Day"?
Could I see it from the mountains
If I were as tall as they?

arr. Craig Hella Johnson

Morning,
 Morning,
 Where does Morning lie?

Has it feet like Water lilies?
 Has it feathers like a Bird?
 Is it brought from famous countries
 of which I have never heard?

Oh some Scholar, Oh some Sailor,
 Oh some Wisemen from the sky,
 Please to tell a little Pilgrim
 where the place called "Morning" lies?

- Emily Dickinson (c. 1859)

✠ Prayer of Thanksgiving

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Great and loving God,
 you continue to reach out to us in love,
 and you promise to be with us in all things.
Deepen within us a spirit of thanksgiving that with grateful hearts we may receive the fullness of the life you intend for us in Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and forever. Amen.

MUSIC NOTES

As organist of the Cathedral in Reims, where French kings had long been crowned, Nicolas Grigny occupied a position of some prominence in late 17th-century musical culture. His sole publication, the Livre d'Orgue (Organ Book) of 1699, comprises music for the mass and for several Gregorian hymns. Today's opening and closing voluntaries, from the Mass portion of this publication, would have been heard in their day in alternation with bits of the Gloria plainchant, as was then the custom throughout France. Grigny's music tends toward denser, more complex textures than that of his French contemporaries, with idiosyncratic harmonic progressions and abundant ornamentation.

A fixture in 16th-century Cambridge, composer and organist Christopher Tye was immersed in Anglican tradition, starting as a lay clerk in the choir of King's College, then a long career as organist/choirmaster at Ely Cathedral, followed by ordination as a deacon and priest in the Anglican church. One of the first composers to employ polyphony (multiple voices) for English liturgy, Tye worked mostly under Edward VI, also teaching him music, and composed highly regarded choral and chamber works. Sadly, only a small percentage of his output survives today, mostly in short fragments. Today's introit embodies Tye's contrapuntal choral writing, a style more ornate and forward-looking than his Anglican contemporaries.

A favorite of the St. Philip choir, our anthem features an energetic rendition of the 19th-century tune INVITATION from the collection of shape-note hymns, The Southern Harmony. Highlighting the first three of six verses from the original hymn text, each verse is given a unique treatment reflecting the mood of the text: the first soft harkening a call in the distant, the second full with three sections singing together in optimism, and the third taking the form of a poignant chorale before a rousing return to the "alleluia" refrain.

Like so many of her poems, Emily Dickinson's "Will There Really Be a Morning?" is both playful and serious, inviting us to reconsider the meaning of the mundane, in this case intangible aspects of our daily life. In the text, the subject seeks to broaden their perspective ("could I see it from the mountains"), asking for guidance from a scholar, sailor, or wisemen to "tell a little Pilgrim" where this elusive "morning" lies. Craig Hella Johnson, no stranger to the Houston area, offers a personal musical interpretation in his tender setting of the beloved poem, adding his own short refrain between the original verses.

GET READY FOR TRICK-OR-TREATERS

Kids love to get chocolate for Halloween, and now's a great time to stock up on organic and fairly traded chocolate Minis for the spooky season. Equal Exchange, our partner in the Presbyterian Coffee Project, participates in a fair-trade program to help end the problems of child labor, family poverty, and environmental destruction that are often endemic in the African cocoa industry, where most commercial chocolate also begins its journey to your supermarket shelves.

You can buy fair-trade chocolate Mini bars to give on Halloween at our pop-up sale on Sunday, October 27, in the Gathering Area, before worship. Kid-sized and loved by all, our milk and dark chocolate Minis will be bagged for your convenience! Limited stock of your other favorite Equal Exchange products will also be available. Help scare off child labor this Halloween!

CHOCOLATE CAN BE SCARY

Chocolate is made from the fruit of the cacao (ca-cow) tree.

Most BIG CHOCOLATE COMPANIES buy cacao that is grown by farmers in West Africa. Often, farmers don't earn enough to live on.

Sometimes CHILDREN who have been separated from their families work on these farms and get paid very little or nothing at all.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASSES FOR ALL AGES

SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASSES START AT 9:45 A.M. UNLESS OTHERWISE NOTED

GODLY PLAY – Ages 3 – Kindergarten – Room 103

We are offering three cycles of 6-week classes from through December to experiment with increased variety of topics, teachers, and formats in our Sunday School, as well as introducing new opportunities for youth to engage in mission and children to engage in music.

ELEMENTARY – Grades 1-4 – ROOM 105 – All ages attend "the Gospel According to Bluey" to pair a Jesus teaching with 2 episodes of Bluey and explore the themes in breakout groups by ages: adults will chat, kids will play. See graphic on the previous page.

YOUTH – Grades 5-12 – DINING ROOM – Youth families will turn the Sunday School hour into a time to revive the Kids Against Hunger program as leaders in our congregation.

CHURCH & SOCIETY – ROOM 201 – Join us from 9:30 a.m. – 10:40 a.m. with presentations in person and by Zoom. October 27 -The Legacy of Dr. Bertie Simmons at Furr Senior High School. We will revisit a presentation for Church & Society in 2021 by Rev. Cassandra Dahnke and Dr. Bertie Simmons. Bertie reflected on her time serving as principal at Furr Senior High School. The presentation includes a video recording, made by Furr students, that tells the story of Furr's transformation from being a "pipeline to prison" fraught with gang violence, to become a student body that participated in the Institute for Civility Youth Program. Student Legislative Seminars gather high school students in Washington, D.C. for a week to research an issue, decide their positions through active dialogue, and meet with members of Congress to share their thoughts - a practical exercise in civility students never forget. Email Mickey Meyers if you would like to join any of the classes: churchsociety_stphilip@comcast.net.

ADULT BIBLE STUDY – ROOM 204 – We are continuing with our study of Job in Dr. Robert Alter's The Wisdom Books: Job, Prophets and Ecclesiastes (2010). Join us from 9:30 - 10:40 a.m. to deepen our understanding of God's faithfulness to God's people from Dr. Alter's translation and commentary on the Biblical Hebrew. All are welcome.

CHILDREN'S CHAPEL – In the Children's Chapel, our young disciples learn the whos, whats, wheres, whens and whys of worship in the chapel, while also praying, seeing and hearing God's word at an age-appropriate level. Children return to join the congregation in the first few pews on the lectern side of the church for the last hymn. Children are able to participate in this during the worship service.

This very strong 17th-century German hymn employs many phrases from the psalms, especially Psalms 150 and 103:1-6. It did not receive an effective English translation until the mid-19th century, but has remained popular ever since, thanks in part to its stirring tune.

This is one of the most popular songs to emerge from the 1970s revival of religious song in Spain. It asks singers to become like the fishermen who left boats and nets to follow Jesus, first as disciples learning his way of love, then as apostles carrying that love to others.
